SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1

On the eastern edge of Kuznetsk (53°07'N/46°38'E), Penza Oblast, [redacted] a plant from which in-line engines and aircraft parts were shipped by truck to the railroad station. [redacted] the plant to be a minor repair installation. No construction work was done at the plant between 1946 and December 1947. *

* [ ] Comment. Attached is a sketch of Kuznetsk installations, drawn on the basis of PW information dating back to World War II. All the aircraft factories indicated on the sketch are west of Kuznetsk, but the installation mentioned in the present report, although supposedly east of the city, would seem to be one of the factories indicated in the sketch, probably Aircraft Plant No. 472.

[redacted] on frequent train trips between Syzran (53°11'N/46°26'E) and Penza (53°12'N/45°01'E) he observed no other plants except the one aircraft plant in Kuznetsk, and it seems unlikely [redacted] would not have noted Aircraft Plant No 472, which is indicated on the sketch as being near the railroad line. However, a previous report [redacted] did mention an aircraft plant on the eastern edge of Kuznetsk.
